MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Flora lashed Cuba today for the fourth day in a row, dealing a crushing blow to the already staggering economy of Fidel Castro's Communist regime.

Half of the island's sugar, rice, coffee, cotton and cocoa crops were reported wiped out by the wind and the torrential rain, and Florida was far from through with Cuba. At 8 a.m. (EST), she had started to move once again across the stricken nation.

The turbulent eye of the giant storm crossed the south coast near Santa Cruz Del Sur and was thrashing very slowly toward the city of Camaguey.

Sugar production, the backbone of Cuba's economy, already had fallen to the lowest level in 30 years, Castro admitted, and Communist management, lackadaisical work by peasants, and the breakdown of motor transport.

As the 100-mile-an-hour storm — which already has taken more than 400 lives — moved into Cuba for the second time, the Bahama Islands came once more into range and Florida was threatened.

In her first thrust into Cuba Friday, Flora gave signs that she would thrash on northward into the Bahamas. But the storm stalled over Oriente province, then turned westward back into the Caribbean sea.

Only two deaths thus far have been confirmed in the guarded reports from the radio. The crews of two coastal fishing boats are missing in savage seas off the south coast. More than 400 bodies have been counted in Haiti.

Oriente is the principal sugar producing province of Cuba and Flora in four days probably has done more damage to the crop than the anti-Castro rebels have done in four years with sabotage.

The 8 a.m. advisory placed the storm center near latitude 21.0 north, longitude 78.0 west, or about 300 miles south-southeast of Miami.

Gale winds whirled outward 400 miles to the north, well up the coast of Florida, and 200 miles to the south over Jamaica. One death has been reported in Jamaica's flooded mountains. Rain extended into the Bahamas.

Many hurricanes in the past have made sharp changes in direction, even looped the loop, but forecasters said it is very unusual for a storm to sit so long in one place, as Flora has.

Even more unique is the fact that Flora has maintained her strength, although a large part of her circulation has remained over land for four days.

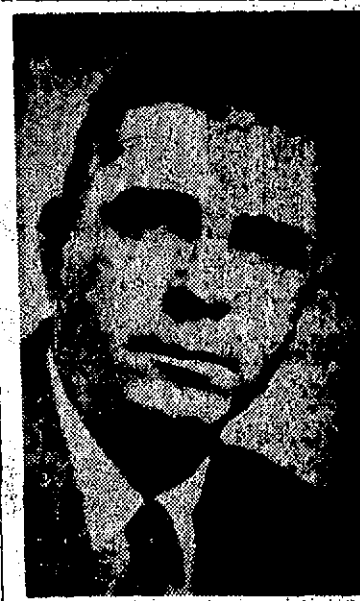

The big storm churned up angry seas in the northwest Caribbean.

The 46th annual convention of the Arkansas Savings and Loan League will be held at Arlington Hotel, Hot Springs, Oct. 11-12. Program Chairman for the meeting is Fred O. Ellis of Hope, Secretary of Hope Federal Savings and Director of the Southwest Conference.

Important Farm Bureau Meeting

An important meeting of the Hempstead County Farm Bureau has been called for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the organization's office.

"It is time for use to review what we are for and against," said President Autry Wilson. Each member is asked to bring a list of county, state and national problems for discussion and study by the group and voted on at the countywide convention.

The Resolutions Committee is asked to be present, says Chairman Sidney Cash.

Formal Installation

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Roosevelt D. Crockett, who became the fifth president of Philander Smith College in June 1961, will be formally installed Tuesday afternoon, succeeding M. Lafayette Harris.

Common Causes of Snoring Range From Obesity, Heavy Smoking, Tonsils and Fatigue

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (KAP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

If you snore, it may be because you are too fat... Obesity is listed as a common cause of snoring, as are excessive smoking, enlarged tonsils and fatigue. Incidentally, one out of eight people snore habitually.

Public Meet Scheduled for Tuesday Night

A public meeting has been called for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 8, in the City Hall auditorium. The meeting is for the purpose of discussing the proposed street and drainage program.

Mayor Frank Douglas urges all residents and property owners in the area involved to especially be on hand. The City Board has gone as far as it can and the project is now up to property owners who must form an improvement district which to match a $250,000 federal grant for the project. The city itself is to put up another $120,000.

The area involved is in Ward 1, south of the Missouri Pacific tracks and east of Main Street. The project requires that two-thirds of the property owners involved sign a petition setting up the district.

This and other issues pertaining to the proposed district will be discussed Tuesday night.

Pine Bluff to Get New Post Office

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee approved $2,975,400 today for construction of a new post office and courthouse at Pine Bluff, Ark.

The committee approved funds for construction and major alteration of 35 federal buildings in 23 states and the District of Columbia.

In acting on the Independent Offices Appropriation bill for the fiscal year ending next June 30, the committee cut 10 per cent from the construction cost estimates of the General Services Administration and eliminated funds for special equipment for fallout shelter areas in the basement of each of the buildings.

Construction plans for the new Pine Bluff federal building have not been revealed. It will be part of the Pine Bluff Civic Center, a 53-acre project which will also include a city hall, police and fire stations, library and fine arts building.

The city passed a $2,214,000 bond issue last November to finance its portion of the complex. Urban renewal funds are being sought for the non-governmental buildings.

The city is now waiting on a grant from the Federal Housing and Home Financing Agency for purchase of land.

No construction has been started.

The civic center complex will lie between 8th and 11th avenues and Main and Missouri streets.

No Attendance Record

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Attendance at the Arkansas Livestock Exposition totaled 185,899 for the five-day session which ended Saturday, exhibition manager Clyde E. Byrd said Sunday. This failed to break the attendance record of 187,642 set during a six-day session last year, Byrd said.

No Business for October Court

The October term of Hempstead Circuit Court met and adjourned this morning with only one case discussed. The jury did not report and the next court is scheduled for January.

Today Bracton Irwin, Hot Springs, entered a plea of not guilty to involuntary manslaughter. He was instructed to report for the January term. The charge arose in connection with the August 13 auto collision on Highway 67 that proved fatal to Mrs. Glen Holley of Patmus.

Negro Girl Held in Fatal Stabbing

City Police are holding a 25-year-old Negro woman listed as Louise Brown, Prescott, in connection with the fatal stabbing Sunday of Elbert Williams, 25-year-old Hope Negro. The incident occurred about 5 p.m. yesterday at a Negro night spot on North Hazel known as Roach's Place.

The altercation followed an argument, City Officers Brown, Shirley and Clark said. Williams was rushed to a local hospital but died shortly after arriving. Police said he was stabbed in the ribs on throat.

Louise Brown is in jail and officers said she admitted stabbing Williams. Charges probably will be filed sometime today.

B&PW Week Observed Nationally

Focus 1963... "The Responsibility of Full Partnership." This progressive theme, adopted by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, sets the pace for National Business Women's Week, October 6 through 12.

Mrs. Roy Stephenson, member of the Hope BPW Club, who is helping to coordinate National Business Women's Week activities in this area, said "the purpose of the week is to spotlight the achievements and contributions of business and professional women; to create better understanding of the goals of working women, their needs and ambitions."

Across the country American Women are accepting "The Responsibility of Full Partnership" in their jobs, their communities, their country. "Only by working together toward a goal of better trained women can we hope to fill the future needs of our growing economy. Currently, there are 24.5 million women in the nation's work force, and the Bureau of the Census predicts a 25% increase in women workers by 1970, with progress fastest in the professional and technical fields," said Mrs. Stephenson. Occupations which will need women include: doctors, nurses, medical technologists, nutritionists, chemists, engineers, teachers, and community and social service workers.

Mrs. Stephenson pointed out that the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club, celebrating its 35th National Business Women's Week, is helping women to develop their individual talents, to be prepared to accept the new responsibilities of the space age.

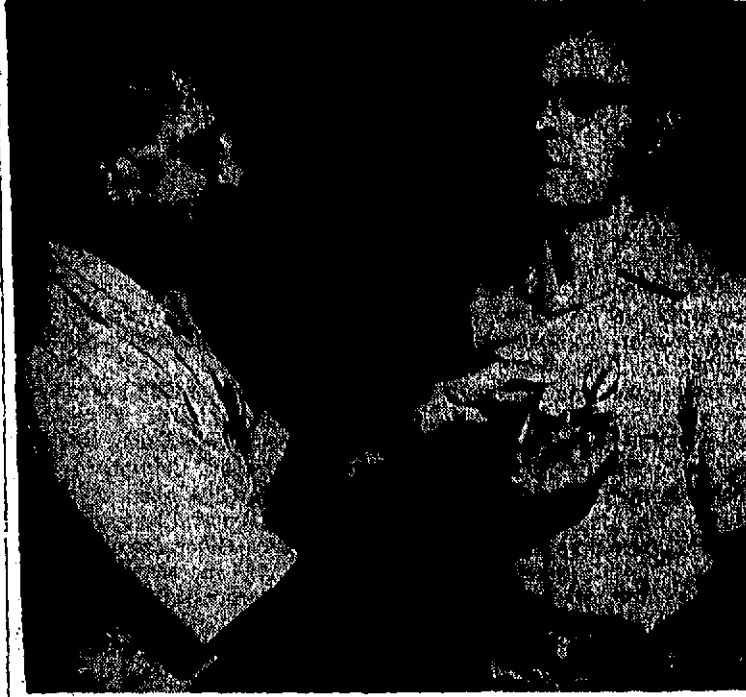

National Business Women's Week is sponsored by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs with 170,000 members in 3,555 clubs under 53 State Federations including all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and Virgin Islands.

Local observance of the week includes a Proclamation by Mayor Frank Douglas; the presentation of the morning devotion messages over KXAR by members of the Hope BPW Club; a coffee from 9 to 11 Tuesday, October 8, in the Community Room of the First National Bank, honoring all of the business women in Hope; displays stressing the theme in downtown store windows; an interview and spot announcements over KXAR; and news releases in the Hope Star, all aimed at making the public more aware of the importance of women in the economic life.

The local club will celebrate its 39th birthday Thursday, October 10, with a dinner at the Hotel Barlow to which ten clubs in the district have been invited. The principal speaker for the occasion will be Miss Gladys Moores, Auditor of one of the Texarkana banks.

Hope BPW Club members are currently selling blue and white automobile tags which read "Arkansas, Home of Miss America, Land of Beautiful Girls." The money from the sale of these tags will be placed in the Student Loan Fund, which is a continuous project of the club.

Local Man Gets an Award

Students Chant They Want Tickets

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The chant was familiar, but somehow it didn't ring true.

"Whole Hog, Half Ham, We Want Tickets, by Damn!" The chanters were University of Arkansas students. But they weren't backing the Razorback football team.

They were raising Cain because they—between 400 and 500 students—can't get tickets to the Texas-Arkansas game at Little Rock Oct. 19—the game the prognosticators say will decide the Southwest Conference football championship.

Fred Favor, president of the student body, led the demonstration Saturday. He said he was empowered by the constitution of Associated Students to call the demonstration, which was orderly.

The students staged their protest below a balcony of a room where state legislators—on hand for the university's legislative weekend—were being served lunch.

The Arkansas Traveler, the student newspaper, said 3,000 students could not get tickets for the Porker-Longhorn game.

Most of them had tickets to the TCU-Arkansas game in Fayetteville, however, or so it appeared. About 30 minutes before Saturday's kickoff, the demonstration ended.

Admits Negro Education Is Inferior

WASHINGTON (AP)—Education of children in Arkansas is markedly inferior to that of white children in the state, the Arkansas Advisory Committee of the Civil Rights Commission concluded Saturday.

The committee said in a written report Arkansas schools are still separate and that nothing significant has been done in the past 10 years toward eliminating a double standard in education.

Only 0.2 per cent of the Negro children attending school in the spring of 1963 attended school with white persons, the committee said, even though Negro students comprise almost 26 per cent of the total public school enrollment.

The report added that the number of non-accredited Negro schools in Arkansas has increased and there has been an increase in the difference between white and Negro high school accreditation.

It also pointed out that in 85 per cent of the 104 school districts which have both Negro and white high schools, no Negro school is rated higher than a white school.

"In most cases," the report said, the Negro school is either rated lower, or is not accredited at all."

The committee said Negro schools also have poorer school buildings, lower pay for teachers and less state money per pupil than white schools.

The report said in some cases, Negro children are transported long distances to attend segregated schools even though there are white schools nearby.

Such transportation costs are added to the millions of dollars spent fighting desegregation suits in the courts since 1954, the report continued.

The committee said that since Arkansas ranks among the lowest of states in per capita income it is poorly equipped to handle the burden of maintaining segregated schools.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Thirty representatives of security and investment firms in California and one from Washington are to tour industrial plants at Little Rock, Hot Springs, El Dorado, Magnolia and Pine Bluff Oct. 14-16 as guests of Arkansas Power & Light Co.

Communists May Expel Red China

By PRESTON GROVER

Associated Press Staff Writer MOSCOW (AP)—A world conference of Communist parties will be called shortly and the expectation is that the Chinese Reds will be expelled from the international movement, a non-Soviet Communist source said today.

The informant said the buildup already has begun, the call probably will come from Moscow, but there is no indication of a date. But he said there is enough evidence to indicate an early call is likely.

China also will be invited, as well as those backing Peking, notably the Communist parties from Albania, North Korea, Japan and New Zealand.

A program will be drawn up for the meeting, the source said, based strongly on the Soviet position.

If the Chinese attend they will reject the program. After that, the source added, expulsion procedure will be started.

Altogether the Red Chinese have full support of barely a half dozen Communist parties. Of these, only the Chinese and Albanian parties are in control of the government. The important parties of Italy, France and the Communist states all the way from Outer Mongolia to Czechoslovakia, Poland and East Germany have proclaimed their support of the Russian party.

In any world Communist meeting, the Russians would have an enormous voting edge. The last world meeting, held in Moscow in 1960, drew representatives from 21 countries, including China.

Harris Wants the Tax Bill Up First

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Orrin Harris, D-Ark., says he thinks a tax reduction bill should be passed by Congress before a civil rights bill, because there may not be enough time for approval of both in the current session.

Harris said in a letter to his Fourth Congressional District constituents that there is a feeling in Congress that only one of the two major bills can make it through.

The benefits sought by proponents of civil rights legislation would be hollow victories, Harris said, if those who would benefit from such a bill have no income with which to avail themselves of the proposed new opportunities.

The impact a tax reduction bill will have on unemployment will be great, Harris said, and lack of employment is probably the strongest stimulus underlying the increasing pressures for civil rights legislation.

Another argument in favor of the tax cut bill was that the tax bill has been passed by the House while civil rights proposals are still in committees in both the Senate and House he added.

He also told his constituents a provision in the military pay increase bill was objectionable to him because it excluded servicemen with less than two years service.

Here's How the Arkansans Voted

WASHINGTON (AP)—How Arkansans members of Congress were recorded on recent roll calls:

Senate
On passage, 74-5, of $6 billion Agriculture Department appropriation bill: For the bill—McClellan, Fulbright.

On passage, 70-15, of bill extending life of Civil Rights Commission another year: Against the bill—McClellan, Fulbright.

On passage, 57-14, of bill authorizing $10 million subsidy program for construction of fishing vessels: For the bill—McClellan, Fulbright.

House
On passage, 333-5, of compromise military pay increase bill: All voted for the bill except Trimble who was recorded as not voting.

President Signs Limited Test Ban Treaty

By ENORE MARTON

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy formally ratified the limited nuclear test ban treaty today, calling it "a clear and honorable national commitment" to the cause of man's survival.

Kennedy, in a ten-minute ceremony in the historic Treaty Room of the White House, said the agreement to ban all but underground nuclear tests was "great with promise" and marks a beginning that could lead to further East-West agreements.

"If this treaty fails," Kennedy said, "it will not be our doing, and even if it fails, we shall not regret that we made this commitment."

The President said the United States "can and must keep our vigilance"—an obvious reference to his earlier promise that the nation would be in a position to quickly resume atmospheric testing of nuclear weapons should some other power violate the treaty.

With 16 government officials and members of Congress looking on, Kennedy used 17 fountain pens to sign four copies of the formal instrument of ratification.

The Senate consented to ratification of the treaty by a 90-19 vote on Sept. 24.

More than 100 other nations have added their signatures to the treaty.

Kennedy, reading a formal statement before ratifying the agreement, said that the first two decades of the age of nuclear energy "were full of fear."

He said that, because of this treaty, "today the fear is a little less and hope a little greater."

While emphasizing the limited nature of the treaty, Kennedy expressed hope that it would be the forerunner of other, broader agreements which, he said, may be more difficult to achieve.

Kennedy first used 16 pens to

15 Violent Deaths in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The death of a Southern State College student at Bluff City Sunday brought to 15 the number of violent deaths in the state during the past week.

Carroll Lynn Rogers, 19, of El Dorado, died of injuries suffered Saturday when the car he was riding in went out of control and crashed into an embankment on Highway 24 near Bluff City.

Eight persons died in traffic accidents.

Two men were electrocuted Friday at Brinkley when the television antenna they were erecting fell across a 13,900 volt power line.

Two persons died at Hot Springs, one Wednesday and one Thursday as a result of shootings. A third person was killed in a shooting at West Memphis, also on Wednesday and a fourth was killed in a shooting at Malvern Monday.

One man was killed in a logging accident on Monday at El Dorado.

Churches Are Told 'Think' for Unity

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Unity among Christian churches must be sought through the art of thinking and praying together, not through negotiations, the archbishop of the Greek Orthodox Church in North and South America said at Little Rock Sunday.

Archbishop Iakovos, the first Greek orthodox archbishop to visit Little Rock in 25 years, was in the city Saturday and Sunday to participate in the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Annunciation Parish.

One of six presidents of the World Council of Churches, Iakovos described unification of Christian Churches as a "manifestation of the will of God."

He said for years churches have pursued their own ends, but, "Now, it is time that they pursue the meaning of being Christians."

Iakovos said that though church leaders are meeting and studying their differences and similarities, unity is not to be negotiated.

"Separation and isolation never served any purpose," he continued. "We have been like small children. Fighting and calling names: it has taken up 19 centuries to mature."

Former U.S. Congressman Terry, Dies

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. today at Christ Episcopal Church in Little Rock for David Dickinson Terry, former U.S. representative who died Sunday at his Little Rock home at the age of 82.

Terry, an attorney, entered politics in 1932 when he was elected to the Arkansas Legislature. In 1933 he was elected to his first of five consecutive terms as Congressman from what was then Arkansas' Fifth Congressional District. He served until 1942.

Terry was prominent in public school and river development legislation. He played a key part in the reactivation of old Camp Pike near North Little Rock as Camp Robinson during World War II and in the location of Pine Bluff Arsenal in Arkansas.

Terry was recently honored for his work in the development of Arkansas rivers by the Arkansas River Basin Association.

Terry was recently honored for his work in the development of Arkansas rivers by the Arkansas River Basin Association.

He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Adolphine Fletcher; two sons, William L. Terry of Little Rock and Joseph A. Terry of Memphis; two daughters, Mary Fletcher Terry and Mrs. Sally Terry Plummer, both of Little Rock and nine grandchildren.

Burial will be in Mount Holy cemetery at Little Rock.

Hear a Sample of Musical

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus and Mayor Byron Morse of Little Rock greeted the international cast of the musical "Space Is So Startling" Wednesday and heard a sampling of music from the play.

They also heard a song written especially for the cast's Arkansas visit.

The troupe will present one performance of the musical tonight at Robinson Auditorium in Little Rock. It will move on to Houston, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle before ending its United States tour.

The group has been on tour a year, playing in Scotland, England, Japan, Germany and Switzerland. The U.S. tour already has included stops at Boston, New York, Atlanta, Huntsville, Ala., and Cape Canaveral, Fla.

After the Seattle stop, the group will go to India to begin another foreign tour.

The musical was written by Peter Howard of London. It concerns competition between "astronauts" and "cosmonauts" in a race to the moon.

Junior Miss Pageant

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The 1964 Arkansas Junior Miss Pageant has been scheduled for Little Rock in late December or early January. Pageant Director Charles Black said the deadline for entering is Nov. 30. The winner of the Arkansas pageant will compete in the America Junior Miss Pageant at Mobile, Ala., March 14-21.

Bukish Hurls as Well as Mr. Koufax

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Sandy Koufax has made his last first. Rudy Bukich has made his first.

It adds up to four in a row for the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Chicago Bears.

Bukich, a 30-year-old journeyman quarterback, came off the bench Sunday for the first time this season and connected on a 44-yard pass play to Ronnie Bull that accounted for the game's lone touchdown as the Bears remained undefeated with a 10-3 victory over Baltimore.

An eight-year National Football League veteran, Bukich has sat on the bench so often during his career he has averaged only 40 passes a year. This season as understudy to Billy Wade he had not made even one in the Bears' first three games.

In the third quarter against the Colts, with the Bears trailing 3-0 and Wade ineffective, Bukich got the call. He made the right one with 9:18 remaining in the last quarter, firing a pass over the middle to Bull, who rambled the rest of the way for the clincher.

The victory kept the Bears one game in front of the defending league champion Green Bay Packers, who set the tone against Los Angeles on Herb Adderley's 59-yard touchdown run with the opening kickoff and went on to crush the winless Rams 42-10.

St. Louis and New York, 3-1 as are the Packers, moved past Pittsburgh into the runner-up spot in the Eastern Division behind front-running Cleveland. The Browns whipped the Steelers in a Saturday night game 35-23 as Frank Ryan passed for three touchdowns and scored once.

The Cardinals and Giants had similar performances from their quarterbacks. St. Louis' Charlie beach, southeast Gulf of Mexico and in Florida-Bahama waters. Gale warnings flapped as far north as Stuart, almost a third of the way up Florida's Atlantic coast.

A broadcast monitored in Miami Sunday night said 30,000 persons had been taken from flooded villages around Victoria de las Tunas and 4,700 from suburbs of Santiago de Cuba—where Havana radio said drinking water ran out and many homes collapsed. More than one-fourth of Camaguey, capital of Camaguey Province, was reported flooded.

Carlos Rodriguez, head of the Cuban Agrarian Reform Institute, was quoted as saying 'flora may have wiped out half of Cuba's rice, coffee, cotton and cocoa production.'

Missing were crews of two Cuban coastal fishing boats and two fishermen.

Rescue workers with helicopters went to the aid of farmhands whose trucks were caught by flood waters between Calmanera and Guantanamo City, about 20 miles from the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay. Other farm workers were reported marooned on roofs.

Before Flora assailed Cuba, she killed 17 people on Tobago Island, off Venezuela, then took an estimated 400 lives in Haiti. Many Haitian villages were reduced to rubble.

The hurricane lay nearly stationary in the Caribbean Sea all Sunday, centered about 380 miles south-southeast of Miami. She churned up rough seas in the northwest Caribbean, southeast Gulf of Mexico and Florida-Bahamas waters. Gale warnings flapped as far north as Stuart, almost a third of the way up Florida's east coast.

Forecasters at Miami said Flora was expected to take a northward tack today. That would turn her rain-laden fury loose once again on eastern Cuba.

sign the instruments of ratification. Having distributed these, he reached for a 17th and added a few flourishes to his signature on one gilt-bound copy, saying:

"I have to get one for myself."

The White House said the limited ban would go into full effect Thursday when the three copies are placed in official depositories in Washington, London and Moscow.

Witness for the ceremony in the second-floor office include Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman, the chief American negotiator; Secretary of State Dean Rusk; Director William Z. Foster of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency; Deputy Disarmament Director Adrian Fisher; John J. McCloy, chairman of the agency's advisory committee; Vice President Lyndon B. The treaty is the 12th major pact concluded since the end of World War II that bears the signatures of both the United States and the Soviet Union.

Not all of the 12 are treaties in the restricted use of the word in the United States, where a treaty is an agreement made by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Some of them are agreements made without congressional assistance, under the President's constitutional power.

And only two of the 12 are bilateral treaties between Washington and Moscow: the agreement on cultural exchanges and the "hot line" pact. The others are multilateral.

Johnson threw three touchdown passes and gained 301 yards in a 56-14 walloping of Minnesota while New York's V. A. Little passed for three TDs and 302 yards in a 24-14 decision over Washington.

In the other games, Detroit ruined Jack Christiansen's debut as San Francisco head coach by whipping the 49ers 26-3 and Philadelphia edged Dallas 24-21. With capacity crowds at all but Minnesota and Detroit, the seven-game program drew a record $58,007 fans.

Denver knocked off the American Football League's last undefeated team, beating San Diego 30-14. In other weekend action, Kansas City defeated Houston 26-7, New York downed Boston 31-21 and Buffalo beat Oakland 12-0.

The Colts took a 3-0 lead in the third quarter on Jim Martin's 16-yard field goal, and Roger LeClerc matched that with a 17-yarder for the Bears after the Bukich to Bull pass pulled it out. In all, Bukich completed six of seven passes for 112 yards.

News of the Day in the U.S. Capital

Today in Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

PAKISTAN: The nation's top military man, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, may go to Pakistan next month to try to help allay suspicions raised there by the shipment of U.S. weapons to India.

Serious frictions have developed in U.S.-Pakistan relations since this country started beefing up India's military forces in the face of a serious threat from Communist China.

This in turn has angered Pakistan, a traditionally strong U.S. ally, but a bitter opponent of India.

Thus, the United States has increasingly faced the difficult task of keeping its Pakistan and India allies at arms length while trying to stem what this country considers the main threat, another Chinese intrusion into India.

Pakistan has been warming up west half and upper 80s elsewhere.

LOUISIANA: Clear to partly cloudy through Tuesday. Not much change in temperatures. Low tonight 54 to 64. High Tuesday 82 to 90.

to Red China while protesting U.S. military aid to India, despite this country's assurances that American weapons are not increasing India's capacity for any assault on Pakistan.

YUGOSLAVIA: President Kennedy has aroused some congressional ire by ruling Yugoslavia eligible for $2 million in U.S. military aid on grounds it is not controlled by the international Communist conspiracy and therefore not subject to the ban set by Congress on assistance to such countries.

"This phony classification is certainly a mockery," said Rep. William Minshall, R-Ohio.

"The first thing you know, they will say the Chinese Communists are no longer allied with Khrushchev's brand of communism and, therefore, under this reasoning they would be eligible," chimed in Rep. Otto Passman, D-La.

Passman is chairman of a House appropriations subcommittee on foreign operations. Minshall is a member of the committee.

The information about the $2 million Kennedy authorized last fiscal year for spare parts for U.S. military equipment owned by Yugoslavia was brought out in hearings last May. A censored transcript was released Sunday.

SPACE RACE: Dr. Edward C. Walsh, executive secretary of the National Aeronautics and Space Council, has cautioned Americans not to underestimate Soviet space capability.

Speaking Saturday night to a dinner of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Welsh said:

"We seem to go through cycles of upgrading and downgrading the space ability of the Soviet Union."

"The correct approach is to recognize that the Soviets got a head start, have an orderly, well planned and vigorous space program and will continue to impress us with both their technological accomplishments and their space spectacles."

"They are in a technological race with us. They can afford to continue it, and it would be dangerous to underestimate their abilities."

DOROTHY DIX

THE WAGES OF SIN
By HELEN WORDEN ERKINE

Dear Helen: Ours is considered the ideal marriage. If people only knew! After 20 years I am tired of this pretense. Somewhere I have goofed.

The second year of our marriage my husband and I separated, both of us having done a little looking on the side. After 11 months we decided to forget the past and start anew. Apparently he never did.

When our third child was born and I was still in the hospital, he had an affair with my sister in our own house. At the time of the fourth child's arrival he was co-vorting with a waitress. The day one of our boys had his tonsils out my husband took a "vacation" for his nerves and spent it with a woman.

I was seven months along with our last child (now only a few months old), when I discovered that I suffered from a venereal disease. My husband accepted full responsibility. Treatment was taken by both of us but I thought I would go crazy. By the grace of God the baby is apparently all right. I feel dirty all over. It seems to me that I condone a lie by continuing to live with this man who remains faithless. I am of a faith that does not approve of divorce.

Can I still be a good wife? When I look at my husband, I feel contempt for myself. —Battered Wife

Dear Battered: You state that you enjoy "what is considered the ideal marriage." Who actually believes that declaration? Your friends? Your relatives? Your priest? If you've been covering up for this man to whom you've been married all these years, quit being a hypocrite and start facing the facts.

What kind of a sister do you have who would be guilty of participating in such a sordid triangle? Why should you, after 20 years of marriage and having borne five children, whiplash yourself because your husband keeps on seeing other women?

If your faith sanctioned a trial separation 10 years ago, I feel quite sure that your present dilemma would receive sympathetic understanding. For the sake of your own self-respect and the respect of your children, appeal to your priest for specific advice as to how to secure your relationship with this man. Show him the letter you have written me and, if there are any details omitted, divulge them. God would not sanction the kind of marriage you described!

Dear Helen: My husband's younger brother recently left a mental hospital and came to stay with us. When he didn't get all my husband's attention he took his frustration out on me, saying I was mean to him. My husband refused to believe the truth.

Desperate, I asked him to send his brother home; instead, he left with his brother, claiming he nevd

Dixielanders Win Talent Show

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Dixielanders, a jazz sextet from Magnolia, won the grand sweepstakes award Saturday night in the Youth Talent Contest at the Arkansas Livestock Exposition in Little Rock.

Members of the group were Robert Wiley, Aubrey Talley, John Meade, John Cary, Kenneth Sibley and Jim Buffalo. The sextet also won the special group class.

If it weren't for the children I don't know what I'd do. I appealed to our minister but he can't help us unless my husband seeks help from him. My mother-in-law is taking the mentally weak son in her own home but that's like locking the stable after the horse has fled.

Only out of the kindness of my heart did I give haven to this woozy-minded brother-in-law but I shall think twice before again taking a mentally ill person into my home. Let this be a lesson to others. Heartbroken.

Dear Heartbroken: It strikes me that both brothers are both slightly unbalanced. But there's a good chance that your husband will regain his senses now that he is no longer under the influence of the mentally ill brother. Be patient. Perhaps your mother-in-law can persuade him to see the light.

Memo to those who expect an immediate reply to requests for a personal answer: My mail goes first to the newspaper to which it was addressed, then to me. Requests for personal replies delay the process further. Be patient!

Oklahoma, Texas Games Nation's Top
By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

At the risk of corn as high as an elephant's eye, may it be pointed out that Oklahoma had its beautiful morning against Southern Cal. But whether it develops into a beautiful day depends on this weekend's events in the Cotton Bowl.

Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson, whose scrambling Sooners gained the top spot in the national college football ratings with a victory over then No. 1 Southern Cal, brought back a partial forecast against Oklahoma State Saturday night.

Chances are that his notes are less than enthusiastic. The Longhorns, ranked third in the nation and 3-0 for the year, romped 34-7 and may have been playing under wraps for Wilkinson's benefit.

Oklahoma was idle and takes a 2-0 mark into the clash with Texas at Dallas, the big one on the weekend schedule and one of the most fierce rivalries in the country.

While Texas enhanced its No. 3 rating at the expense of Oklahoma State, two other members of the Top Ten fell by the wayside. No. 5 Northwestern was edged by Illinois 10-9 and No. 7 Georgia Tech. lost to Louisiana State 7-6.

Second-ranked Alabama, No. 6 Navy, No. 8 Southern California, No. 9 Pittsburgh and No. 10 Mississippi each won as expected. Wisconsin, ranked fourth, was idle, resting up for a key game with Purdue this weekend. The Boilermakers edged Notre Dame 7-6.

Jim Plankenhorn's conversion and a 21-yard field goal were key contributions to Illinois' upset of Northwestern. A bad pass from center ruined Northwestern's chance for conversion.

Alabama won its third in a row, bolting past Vanderbilt 21-6 at Nashville with Benny Nelson scoring on runs of 50 and 97 yards. Navy, also 3-0, got another inspired performance from Roger Staubach in 28-33 triumph at Michigan. Staubach completed 14 of 16 passes for two touchdowns and 237 yards and scored another on a five-yard run.

Southern Cal, 2-1, had to rally in the last quarter for a 13-10 edge over Michigan State at Los Angeles; Pitt won its third straight from West Coast powers, clubbing California 35-15 at Pittsburgh and Perry Dunn threw two touchdowns passes in Mississippi's 20-6 victory at Houston.

Duke's unbeaten Blue Devils scored their third straight, a 30-12 decision over Maryland in the national television game.

Civil Rights Skirmish in House Looms
WASHINGTON (AP) — A civil rights skirmish looms in the House today when a bill to extend the life of the Civil Rights Commission comes up for a vote. The bill is a stopgap measure to keep the commission alive until Congress acts on an omnibus civil rights bill. The commission is due to expire Nov. 30. The House action ushers in a heavy week of congressional activity, with a $47-billion defense appropriation bill, a major education bill and a bill providing funds for more than 20 government agencies coming up in either the House or Senate. A parliamentary situation requiring a two-thirds majority for passage of the Civil Rights Commission extension adds a touch of suspense to what otherwise would be a fairly routine vote. House attendance is generally light on Mondays, with most of the missing members coming from metropolitan areas in the Northeast where support for civil rights legislation is strongest. Southern opponents of the commission can be expected to turn out in force. The bill provides for only a one-year extension of the commission, whereas the omnibus bill now being considered by the House Judiciary Committee would make it a permanent agency. The one-year extension has been approved by the Senate.

Dodger Sweep Brings Talk of a New Dynasty

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers' incredible four-game World Series sweep over the New York Yankees could be the start of a new dynasty and the end of an old one.

The world champion Dodgers, loaded with youth, speed, confidence, pep and pitching, could rule the National League for years to come.

The ability to draw upwards of two million annually in this ever-growing area and their spacious new stadium is bound to pour additional millions of dollars into an already bulging treasury and enable the front office to pay handsome bonuses to promising youngsters.

The humiliating four-game downfall not only is a loss to the Yankees' pride and prestige but is bound to encourage the rest of the American League clubs which have acted as puppets on Yankee strings for many, many years.

Sandy Koufax' brilliant pitching Sunday in the 2-1 Dodger haymaker proved again what Dodger pitching had shown during the entire series—that strong pitching can beat good hitting teams, even such power hitting teams like the Yankees.

The three Dodger starters—Johnny Podres, Don Drysdale and Koufax, with an assist from relief ace Art Perranoski, stifled the Yankee sluggers with only 22 hits an average of under six per game. Koufax, who started the sweep with a 5-2 victory over Whitey Ford in the opener, permitted only six hits Sunday and lost his shutout when Mickey Mantle homered in the seventh.

The Yankees scored only four runs in four games.

"The Dodgers' great pitching beat us, nothing else," said Yankee Manager Ralph Houk, who accepted the defeat, his first in three World Series, philosophically. "We simply couldn't score enough runs."

"I've never seen such tremendous pitching all around in my 10 years with the Dodgers," said Los Angeles Manager Walter Alston, who also had led Dodger teams to world championships in 1955 and 1959.

The Dodgers didn't exactly knock down any fences. They amassed only 25 hits, two Sunday, but as Alston said: "We got our this when they counted the most. That's the way we've played all year."

Ford, who lost both the first and fourth games, pitched brilliantly Sunday. He permitted only two hits, both by big Frank Howard, who broke a scoreless pitching duel with a 450-foot home run in the fifth inning.

The winning run was unearned. It came in the bottom of the seventh after the Yankees had evened the score on Mantle's 15th series home run, which tied Babe Ruth's record for most homers in series play.

Jim Gilliam opened the Dodgers' seventh with a bouncer to third. Clete Boyer made a leaping stop and good throw to first but Joe Pepitone let the ball go.

Palmer Takes Tournament, Gets Richer

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Arnold Palmer says he has to play more often to shoot winning golf but the suspicion is growing among the touring pros that his green, not greens, that brings out the best in the richest linksmen of all time.

Palmer, 33, won the richest PGA prize of them all Sunday, the $25,000 first prize of the $125,000 Whitmarsh Open golf tournament with a 72-hole total of 281. The victory over the 6,807-yard Whitmarsh Valley Country Club made the Latrobe, Pa. golfer the holder of the three biggest tournament checks of 1963—$25,000 here, $25,000 in the Thunderbird classic and $22,000 in the Cleveland Open.

Palmer didn't win the Whitmarsh gold easily. He almost blew the big money. A birdie on the 71st hole broke what could have been the most expensive skid in golf history. With the bird he survived by one stroke over Lionel Hebert, the veteran pro from Lafayette, La.

Hebert sat in the press tent after shooting a one under par 71 over the par 36-36-72 course. He slipped on a bottle of beer realizing that Palmer needed only a par on the 18th hole to clinch the victory.

Palmer scored a par four on the 420-yard 18th, canning a putt of about a foot.

Hebert didn't exactly have to cry in that beer. He collected $13,000 for his second-place 282. Old Sam Snead, who finished with a six under par 66, and Al Bald-through him. By the time the first baseman had retrieved the bounding ball, Gilliam was on third, from where he scored on Willie Davis' sacrifice fly to Mantle in deep right center.

"I lost the ball in the sun and in the white shirts of the grandstands," Pepitone explained later. "It hit my wrist, then my forearm, then my chest. All I could see was shirts."

Pep's misplay was the only Yankee error of the series. Koufax, the series hero with two victories, fanned eight Sunday to boost his two-game total 23, a record for a series of seven games or less. It was only the second time the Dodgers had beaten the Yankees in eight post season classics. The only other win came in 1955 when the Dodgers were in Brooklyn.

Porkers Down Froggies in Crucial Game

By AL DOPKING

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—End Jerry Lamb and quarterback Fred Marshall combined on a 56-yard touchdown pass play to start Arkansas to an 18-3 Southwest Conference football victory over Texas Christian at Fayetteville Saturday.

Lamb, a long-legged, lanky Texan, scrambled up a defender's back and speared the 32-yard shot from Marshall—snatching it out of TCU hands—and galloped 24 yards for the score.

The game—the conference opener for both teams—might as well have been over then. But when Tommy McNelly's extra point kick went awry, a murmur of doubt swept through the 32,000 fans on hand for the Dad's Day battle. They recalled the errant extra point that left the Razorbacks stranded 6-7 against Missouri's muscular Tigers.

Neither did it bode well when TCU fullback Jimmy McAtter, probably the best placement kicker in the conference, teed a 37-yard field goal in the second quarter and made it 6-3 at halftime.

It was Marshall's first offensive start this season. Coach Frank Broyles picked him over stellar junior Billy Gray and flashy sophomore Jon Brittenum for the quarterback job against the previously unbeaten Horned Frogs.

Marshall's bomb was set up by a 31-yard scamper straight ahead to the Arkansas 42 by sophomore fullback Charles Daniel.

TCU held Arkansas to only two first downs in the first half, but the Razorbacks came back in the second half and shackled the Horned Frogs until the last two minutes—when TCU got its first down of the second half.

Gray got off the bench late in the third quarter.

After the first half scoring, the teams bogged down—both kept in the hole by accurate punting. Tommy Moore of Arkansas booted nine times for a 40 yard average and TCU's Gary Thomas kicked for a 42 yard average on the same number of punts.

TCU Coach Abe Martin called Moore's 59-yard kick to the Horned Frogs' four in the fourth quarter the turning point.

End Jim Grizzle, a defensive husky, put on a hard charge, hurrying and partially blocking a pass that floated down in the hands of Arkansas' Ronnie Caveness, who played a great defensive game. Caveness returned it seven yards to the TCU 20.

Gray, who tossed an 11-yard pass to Jim John on the way, banded his way one yard for the touchdown after the Frogs' desperate goal line stand had repulsed three straight Arkansas dives.

Glen Ray Hines kicked off for Arkansas. It was taken by Marvin Chipman, but he and the ball were separated by a crunching tackle at the TCU 26 and Arkansas' Jim Finch leaped on the ball.

Gary fired a pass to Jim Lindsey, then carried for seven yards and another Razorback score.

"I didn't have any strong reason for making the change to Marshall," Broyles said later, "but he's a four-year man and has the most all-around experience."

TCU mounted a frantic passing attack late in the last quarter and moved to the Arkansas nine before time ran out.

Though Marshall hit on only two of six pass attempts, he netted 66 yards with them—including the touchdown throw to Lamb.

Tailback Jim Lindsey, the leading ground-gainer in the conference before the TCU game, rammed for 53 yards on 13 carries while Daniel gained 58 on 11 tries. Jim Fauver, the speedy Horned Frog back, gained 41 yards on seven carries.

Yankees Even Lose Their Voice

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It was just a bad day for the Yankees. They even lost their voice.

Veteran sportscaster Mel Allen, "The Voice of the Yankees," lost his voice during the tensionrepacked final innings of Sunday's fourth World Series game as New York made a final bid to catch the Los Angeles Dodgers.

"Mel just lost his voice and he figured he'd better rest his throat for perhaps an inning," said Vin Scully, "Voice of the Dodgers," who shared television duties for the Series with Allen.

"It was just a laryngitis attack," said Tom Gallery, Sports Director for NBC.

Oklahoma, Texas Game in Spotlight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas meets Oklahoma at Dallas Saturday in the big game of Southwest Conference football, overshadowing a couple of highly important conference struggles that include Arkansas' second tough engagement in the drive toward a championship.

The Texas-Oklahoma game, one of the oldest rivalries in college football—the contest is 57 years old—will be of high national import since it matches No. 1 Oklahoma with No. 3 Texas.

Oklahoma undoubtedly would have been the favorite if all of Texas' athletes were sound. But Texas now has lost its mighty punter, Ernie Koy, who will submit to surgery today for the removal of the tip of his collarbone.

Arkansas which got its conference championship ball rolling with an 18-3 victory over Texas Christian last week, journeys to Waco Saturday night to meet one of its ever tough foes—Baylor. Baylor is the only conference team other than Texas to beat Arkansas in the last three years.

Baylor last week dropped a 22-15 decision to Oregon State in an interconference clash.

In the other conference test, Texas Tech and Texas Christian will be trying to eliminate each other. Each has lost a conference game. Tech, which took a 49-7 lacing from Texas in its opener, beat Texas A&M 10-0 last week.

There are three interconference games on the schedule, including the Texas-Oklahoma battle in the Cotton Bowl.

Friday night, Southern Methodist, all enthusiastic over an unexpected 10-0 victory over Air Force Academy, takes on powerful Navy at Dallas.

Saturday night Rice meets Stanford at Houston. Rice downed Louisiana State but lost to Penn State 28-7 last week. Stanford beat San Jose State but took a 30-7 drubbing from Oregon and was nosed out 10-9 by UCLA which has scored only six points in three games, hosts University of Houston, which also has lost three but scored a lot anyway.

Bums Finally Get Happy Ending

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Something, maybe the Hollywood influence, induced the Los Angeles Dodgers to come up with a new ending this season.

A year ago, after they blew the pennant to the San Francisco Giants, the scene in the Dodger dressing room was one of utter despair. The doors were locked for an hour. When newsmen finally got in, they found the floor cluttered with half-empty bottles and half-loaded athletes.

Cameramen were summoned Sunday to re-shoot the last scene. They finally got their happy ending.

The team that had pulled one of the most astonishing fainting spells in baseball history in 1962 had pulled one of the neatest tricks of the generation a year later by taking the World Series from the Yankees in four straight.

In 1962, they were pouring bourbon for each other. In 1963, they were pouring champagne on each other.

The celebration barely had begun when Yankee Manager Ralph Houk, no stranger to victory parties, walked in to congratulate Dodger Manager Walter Alston.

"You had it coming to you," Houk said graciously.

"We just caught you in a slump," said Alston.

The rest of the dressing room dialogue was predictably exuberant. Until Frank Howard, the Buntyn-esque outfielder, got into the act.

In the fifth inning, Howard hit a ball 450 feet and became the first man to homer into the second deck in left field at Dodger Stadium.

Howard, incredibly, brushed it off like a bad-bounce single.

"I can't say it gave me a bigger thrill than any other home run I've ever hit," he said. "I've hit a lot of balls farther."

In a corridor outside the dressing room, Pete Richert was pouring champagne over the head of Ron Fairly.

"I'm still using that greasy kid stuff," Fairly said.

The Yankees took their defeat gracefully, if not easily.

"We played a good series," Houk insisted. "And we'll win a lot more series in the future."

Joe Pepitone, the Yankee first baseman, was thinking about the seventh inning. That was when Clete Boyer fielded Jim Gilliam's grounder and threw to Pepitone who let the ball get by him for a three-base error. Gilliam scored the winning run on a fly ball.

"I lost the ball in the sun and in the white shirts of the grandstands," Pepitone said. "First it hit my wrist, then my forearm, then my chest. All I could see was shirts."

"If it had only hit the ground first I might have caught it."

"I feel badly for Peppy," Houk said. "The ball was right there for him. It wasn't bad defensive play that cost us the series. It was a case of a ball being lost. It was magnified by the fact it was in the series."

Experience Just Has No Substitute

By JIM BACON

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"There's no substitute for experience."

Thus commented wise, old Casey Stengel last Wednesday only minutes before the first ball was thrown in Yankee Stadium to begin the Los Angeles Dodgers' four game sweep from the Yanks.

Stengel was comparing Bill (Moose) Skowron, longtime Yankee hero who was traded to the Dodgers during the winter to make room for 22-year-old Joe Pepitone at first base.

Today, amidst the ashes of the series, the veteran Skowron emerges as one of the Dodgers' heroes. Pepitone, with one of the most costly errors in baseball history, is the goat.

"S-O-B---," cursed the slender, likable Italian youth from Brooklyn. "You play good all season and then blow the big game. It has to happen to somebody and I guess it might as well be me."

As Pepitone tossed off his socks Sunday in the Yankee dressing room—a place that resembled the main mausoleum at Forest Lawn in many ways, he added:

"Clete's throw was good. I lost it in the crowd. I just saw a white spot. It hit my wrist, then for forearm and finally my chest—every place but my glove."

Clete Boyer, going three feet in the air like a graceful bird, made a sensational stop of Jim Gilliam's hard smash down the third base line in the seventh with the score tied 1-1.

Boyer, with one of the surest arms in baseball made a perfect throw. But it sailed past Pepitone and rolled toward the stands. By the time Pepitone retrieved the ball, Gilliam was on third base on what should have been an out.

Then Willie Davis drove a long fly to Mickey Mantle in center. The Mick threw a strike to home plate but Gilliam could have crawled the last 20 feet and still have scored.

Skowron, who batted only .203 during the regular season, hit .385 for the Series—even with a hitless day in three times up in the final game.

In the Dodgers' dressing room, Skowron's teammates happily sang a parody on Walt Disney's Mouseketeers song—but the Dodger version, in tribute to one of the happier trades of the year, was called "Mickey Moose."

Over in the solemn Yankee dressing room, no one sang—or even smiled.
